- “Holy” (I Peter 1:16) means set apart: a life faithful and fully committed to Jesus Christ.

I. We must think differently (vs.13)

I. We must think differently (vs.13)

1. Thinking differently involves preparing our minds for action—“gird up your loins.”

I. We must think differently (vs.13)

1. Thinking differently involves preparing our minds for action—“gird up your loins.”
2. Thinking differently also includes to “be sober” or self controlled—not only what we concentrate on but also what we eliminate from our life that distracts us from our sole focus.

I. We must think differently (vs.13)

1. Thinking differently involves preparing our minds for action—“gird up your loins.”
2. Thinking differently also includes to “be sober” or self controlled—not only what we concentrate on but also what we eliminate from our life that distracts us from our sole focus.
3. Thinking differently includes the expectation of Jesus’ return. “fix your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.”

II. We must choose to live obediently (vs.14)

II. We must choose to live obediently (vs.14)

- “obedient children”
  - a. Obedient—choosing to do what is right.

II. We must choose to live obediently (vs.14)

- “obedient children”
  - a. Obedient—choosing to do what is right.
  - b. Children—innocence of simple faith that does not get caught up with a need for explanations.
