

Living in Holiness

The Right Way

Pastor Jason Kim

1 Peter 2:1-3

September 01, 2024

Introduction

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.
 - b. Deceit—a desire to gain some advantage by deceiving others.

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.
 - b. Deceit—a desire to gain some advantage by deceiving others.
 - c. Hypocrisy—a desire not to be known for what really is.

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.
 - b. Deceit—a desire to gain some advantage by deceiving others.
 - c. Hypocrisy—a desire not to be known for what really is.
 - d. Envy—a desire for some privilege that belongs to another, along with the resentment that another has it and you don’t.

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.
 - b. Deceit—a desire to gain some advantage by deceiving others.
 - c. Hypocrisy—a desire not to be known for what really is.
 - d. Envy—a desire for some privilege that belongs to another, along with the resentment that another has it and you don’t.
 - e. Slander—the desire for revenge.

I. Put aside sin (vs.1)

- “Put aside sin/wash off filth” –“get rid of”
 - a. Malice—a desire to hurt someone with words or deeds.
 - b. Deceit—a desire to gain some advantage by deceiving others.
 - c. Hypocrisy—a desire not to be known for what really is.
 - d. Envy—a desire for some privilege that belongs to another, along with the resentment that another has it and you don’t.
 - e. Slander—the desire for revenge.
- Recognize sin in your life, take ownership of it, and get rid of it.

II. Pant for the Word of God (vs.2)

II. Pant for the Word of God (vs.2)

- If you don't desire the milk of the Word, start desiring it!

II. Pant for the Word of God (vs.2)

*As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So my soul pants for You, O God.*

Psalm 42:1

III. Prove your salvation (vs.3)

III. Prove your salvation (vs.3)

A.T. Robertson, “A taste excites the appetite”.

Conclusion

