God Our Refuge

Pastor Jason Kim
Psalms 46:1-11
February 16, 2025

Introduction

Introduction

Meteora, Greece

I. He is still God, our Protector— I will not fear (vs.1-3)
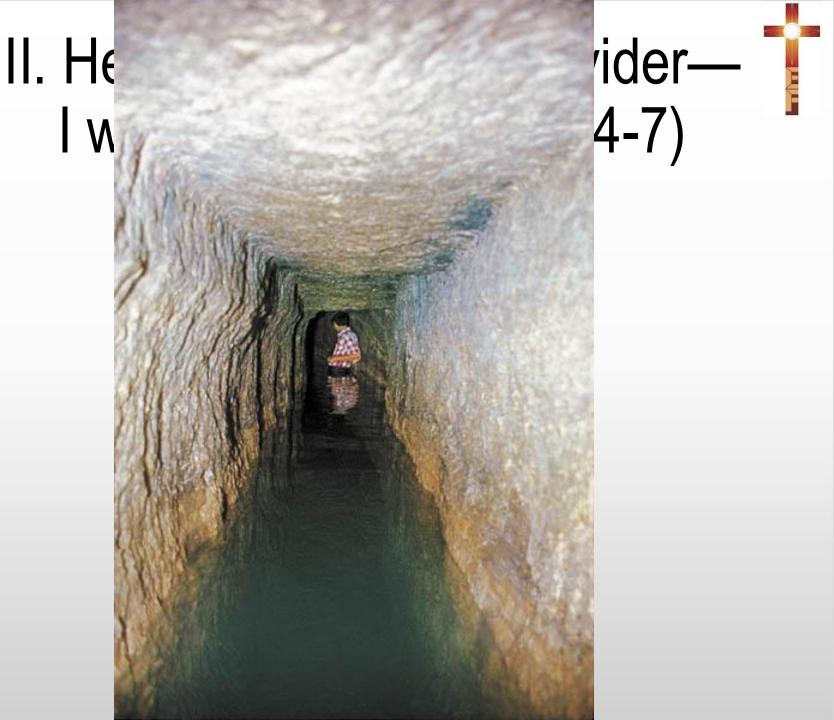

I. He is still God, our Protector— I will not fear (vs.1-3)

- He protects us not to hide us, but to help us. He gives us shelter not to pamper us, but to prepare us.

I. He is still God, our Protector— I will not fear (vs.1-3)

- He protects us not to hide us, but to help us. He gives us shelter not to pamper us, but to prepare us.
- Selah!

II. He's still God, our Provider—
I will not be moved (vs.4-7)

II. He... ...ider—
I w... ...4-7)

II. He's still God, our Provider— I will not be moved (vs.4-7)

- Where is God in all of this tragedy? Right here with us.

II. He's still God, our Provider— I will not be moved (vs.4-7)

- Where is God in all of this tragedy? Right here with us.
- He provides His strength and stability in times of trouble.

II. He's still God, our Provider—I will not be moved (vs.4-7)

- Where is God in all of this tragedy? Right here with us.
- He provides His strength and stability in times of trouble.
- Selah!

III. He's still God, the Proven One—
I will not be anxious (vs.8-11)

III. He's still God, the Proven One— I will not be anxious (vs.8-11)

- Reflect on His power (vs.8,9)—reflect on how God has given you victory in the past; reflect on how He's brought you through.

III. He's still God, the Proven One— I will not be anxious (vs.8-11)

- Reflect on His power (vs.8,9)—reflect on how God has given you victory in the past; reflect on how He's brought you through.
- Rest on His power (vs.10,11)—"Be still," literally means to relax and take your hands off ("don't sweat it"), and let God do what He does best, being God!

III. He's still God, the Proven One— I will not be anxious (vs.8-11)

- Reflect on His power (vs.8,9)—reflect on how God has given you victory in the past; reflect on how He's brought you through.
- Rest on His power (vs.10,11)—"Be still," literally means to relax and take your hands off ("don't sweat it"), and let God do what He does best, being God!
- Selah

III. He's still God, the Proven One— I will not be anxious (vs.8-11)

III. He's still God, the Proven One

Conclusion

- For the believer, the trial is never the last word. There is always "The LORD of host is with us" (vs.5,7,11)